Sir,

May I be permitted to most humbly beg of Your honor to bring these few lines to Your honor's kind consideration.

1. My father was Mahomed Haider Saheb, grandson of Saheb Sahib Fakkruddin. I am the grand-daughter-in-law of [illegible] in-law of the late Nawab Hyder Alli Khan Saheb Bahadur, [illegible] Mysore, and brother-in-law of the late Nawab Tippoo Sultan

2. I lost my husband many years ago, and since then I was under the protection of my above named father, Mahomed Haider who recently he also is dead and now I am left unprotected.

3. I am a widow, fifty years old; in addition, I am ~~blind~~ almost-see properly. I have neither any property nor any means whatsoever of living; thus my difficulties regarding even my bare living are inexpressible.

4. I ~~belonged to the family~~ am the great-grand-daughter of Sahib Fakkruddin, Saheb Tippoo Sultan's ~~Palace~~ family; and my father was a member of the Prince Gulam Ahmed Saheb's Charity Fund Board; and it is needless to say that numberless souls are living under the generous protection Your honor's hands.

5. Therefore I most humbly pray Your honor to kindly consider case and protect a poor widow from dying without food, by kindly ordering for a small and sufficient stipend to be granted to me either from the "Gumbaz" Department at Seringapatam or from the Prince Gulam Ahamed Saheb's Charity Fund, or from [illegible]

6. In conclusion I once more pray Your honor to kindly have sympathy on me and consider my case favourably, as soon as possible, to which act of kindness and generosity I shall ever be duly [illegible]

To,

G. R. S. VI.—6/7]
